in HAMBURG

Cécile started aikido in 1996 as a teenager in Normandy, France. Her studies lead her to practice in the North of France and for a semester in Japan. She settled close to Cercle Tissier in the early 2000's and has been following Christian Tissier's teaching ever since. She also goes to Japanese experts' seminars to enrich her practice (Tsuruzo Miyamoto, Yoko Okamoto). Cécile gave several demonstrations at the Combat Games in Beijing and Riyad. She also had the opportunity to be uke for demonstrations with experts such as Hélène Doué, Fabrice Croizé, Mare Seye, Bruno Gonzalez, Yoko Okamoto and Christian Tissier. Cécile is a member of the national technical committee of the French federation FFAAA.
